DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: 58 (see page 5, line 22). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 6, there is no antecedent basis for "said battery power source".

Regarding claim 7, there is no antecedent basis for "said external power source".

Regarding claim 8, there is no antecedent basis for "said suction means" and "the vertical or horizontal surface".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heiland in view of Kornback.

Heiland discloses a flag-waving device having a housing 16 (see Fig. 2) including opposing end panels, opposing side panels, a base panel and a top panel, then top panel having a slot 48 therein. A motor 62 is secured within the housing and is in communication with a power source 68. The motor is secured to a gear 64, which is in turn attached to a first end of a first shaft 84. The second end of the first shaft 84 is attached to a second shaft 74 (see Fig. 3). The second shaft includes a flag at the end thereof. However, the second shaft is a unitary structure, rather than a truncated shaft into which the shaft of the flagpole is inserted. Kornback teaches that it was known to attach a flagpole into a hollow shaft, in order to make the flag interchangeable with other flags. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the unitary shaft disclosed by Heiland with a two-piece shaft, as taught by Kornback, in order to make the flag easily interchangeable with other flags.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heiland in view of Kornback, as applied to claim 1, above, and further in view of Mumford et al.

Heiland, as modified, discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above. However, the power source disclosed by Heiland is located within the housing. Mumford teaches that it was known in the art to use an external power source (e.g., a solar panel) to operate a traffic-sign-mounted warning device. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use an external power source to operate the flag-waving device disclosed by Heiland, as taught by Mumford, in order to avoid the expense and difficulty of having to replace the batteries.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 4 and 5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
